GROWING PAINS

QUESTION

Why do we never get an answer
when we're knocking at the door.
With a thousand million questions about hate and death and war?
'Cause when we can stop and look around us
there is nothing that we need
In a world of persecution that is burning in its greed.

Why do we never get an answer,
when we're knocking at the door?
Because the truth is hard to swallow-- that's what the war of love is for.

It's not the way that you say it when you do those things to me.
It's more the way that you mean it, when you tell me what will be.
And when you stop and think about it, you won't believe it's true,
That all the love you've been giving, has all been meant for you.

I'm looking for someone to change my life.
I'm looking for a miracle in my life.
And if you could see what it's done to me,
to lose the love I knew could safely lead me through.
Between the silence of the mountains and the crashing of the sea,
There lies a land I once lived in and she's waiting there for me.
But in the gray of the morning,
my mood becomes confused.
Between the dead and the sleeping,
and the road I must choose.

QUESTION

I'm looking for someone to change my life.
I'm looking for a miracle in my life.
And if you could see what it's done to me, to lose the love I knew could safely lead me to the land I once knew, to learn as we grow old, the secrets of our soul.

It's not the way that you say it when you do those things to me.
It's more the way you mean it when you tell me what will be.

HOW IS IT (WE ARE HERE)

How is it we are here, on this path we walk,
In this world of pointless fear, filled with empty talk,
Descending from the ape as scientist-priests all think,
Will they save us in the end, we're trembling on the brink.

Men's mighty mine-machines
digging in the ground, Stealing rare minerals where they can be found
Concrete caves with iron doors,
Bury it again,
While a starving frightened world fills the sea with grain.

Her love is like a fire burning inside.
Her love is so much higher it can't be denied.
She sends us her glory, it's always been there.
Her love is all around us,
It's there for you and me to share.

Men's mighty mine machines

AND THE TIDE RUSHES IN

I've been searching for my dream
a hundred times today.
I build them up, you knock them down,
Like they were made of clay.

Then the tide rushes in,
and washes my castles away.
Then I'm really not so sure which side of the bed I should lay.
I should lay

You keep looking for someone to tell your troubles to.
I sit down and lend an ear-- yet I hear nothing new.

Blackbird sitting in a tree,
observing what's below,
Acorns falling to the ground.
He'll stay and watch them grow.

DON'T YOU FEEL SMALL

Ask the mirror on the wall who's the biggest fool of all,
Bet you feel small--it happens to us all.

See the world--Ask what's it for. Understanding nothing more.
Don't you feel small? It happens to us all.

Time is now to spread your voice.
Time's come there'll be no choice.
Why do you feel small? It happens to us all.

Look at progress--then count the cost.
We'll spoil the seas with the rivers we've lost.

See the writing on the wall. Hear the mirror's warning call.
That's why you feel small-it happens to us all.

Ask the mirror on the wall who's the biggest fool of all.
Bet you feel small--it happens to us all.

TORTOISE AND THE HARE

You know he's moving fast, but he's still going slow.
He's ahead in the race, and there is not far to go.
And your load is so heavy, and your legs want to rest.
It's all right, it's all right, it's all right.

You think he's way up front, but he's so far behind.
He's asleep in the grass, and he's run out of time.
While your load was so heavy, you never wanted to stop.
It's all right, it's all right, it's all right.

Your friend is heavy --but he was ready
And never stopped for a while.
While you were sleeping, he went on, keeping the final line in his mind.
It's all right, it's all right, it's all right.

IT'S UP TO YOU

When the breeze between us calls, love comes and lingers into our lives.

And the leaves begin to fall, you point your finger at me.

I love you.

I love you.

In the sadness of your smile, love is an island way out to sea.

But it seems so long ago we have been ready, trying to be Free.

And it's up to you. Why won't you say?

Make our lives turn out this way.

If they knew, that we have got nothing to lose,

No reason to hide from what's true.

In the world of me and you, all is forgotten when we're inside.

And the words that pass us by.

I am not listening, all of it's lies.

And it's up to you. Why won't you say?

Make our lives turn out this way.

If they knew that we have got nothing to lose,

No reason to hide from what's true.

That we have got nothing to lose.

MINSTREL SONG

Words, a simple song, a minstrel sings.

A way of life in his eyes.

Hear the morning call of waking birds, when they are singing, bringing,
Love--love.

Everywhere love is all around.

Everywhere love is all around.

Now the winter's gone. Cold wind has blown.

The endless stream in our lives

When the minstrel sings this simple song

He's always bringing, singing,

Love--love.

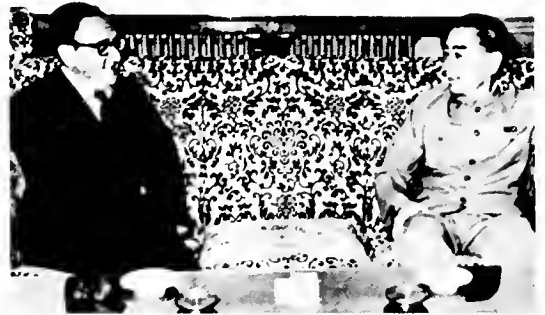

Listen to the one who sings of love.

Follow our friend, our wandering friend.

Listen to the one who sings of love.

Everywhere love is around,

Around, around.

Hear the nations sing our minstrel's song,

As he walks by in their lives.

Soon the spring will come,

and everyone will be singing, bringing,

Love--love.

Everywhere love is all around.

Everywhere love is all around.

DAWNING IS THE DAY

Rise, let us see you--dawning is the day.
Miss, misty meadow, you will find your way.
Wake up in the morning to yourself and leave this crazy world behind you.
Listen, we're trying to find you.
Flow to the sea, you know where to go.
Still we are free,
No one tells the wind which way to blow.
Wake up in the morning to yourself.
Open your eyes and start to be you.
Listen, we think we can see you.
Baby, there's no price on your head. Sing it, shout it.
Now the angry words have all been said. Do it, don't doubt it.

So rise--let us see you.
Dawning is the day
Miss, misty meadow, you will find your way.
Wake up in the morning to yourself--open your head and look around you.
Listen, we think we have found you.

MELANCHOLY MAN

I'm a melancholy man, that's what I am.
All the world surrounds me, and my feet are on the ground.
I'm a very lonely man, doing what I can.
All the world astounds me and I think I understand.
That we're going to keep growing, wait and see.

When all the stars are falling down
Into the sea and on the ground,
And angry voices carry on the wind,
A beam of light will fill your head, and you'll remember what's been said.
By all the good men this world's ever known.
Another man is what you'll see
Who looks like you and looks like me.
And yet somehow he will not feel the same.
His life caught up in misery, he doesn't think like you and me.
'Cause he can't see what you and I can see.

THE BALANCE

After he had journeyed, and his feet were sore, and he was tired,

He came upon an orange grove, and he rested.

And he lay in the cool, and while he rested
he took to himself an orange and tasted it,

And it was good.

And he felt the earth to his spine.

And he asked and he saw the tree above him,
and the stars and the veins in the leaf and the light and balance.

And he saw magnificent perfection

Whereon he thought of himself in balance.

And he knew he was.

Just open your eyes and realize the way it's always been.

Just open your mind and you will find the way it's always been.

Just open your heart, and that's a start.

And when he thought of those he angered,
for he was not a violent man,

And he thought of those he hurt

for he was not a cruel man,

And he thought of those he frightened,

for he was not an evil man.

And he understood, he understood himself.

Upon this he saw that when he was of anger, or knew hurt,
or felt fear,

It was because he was not understanding, and he learned compassion.

And with his eye of compassion,

He saw his enemies like unto himself

And he learned love. Then, he answered.

Just open your eyes, and realize the way it's always been.

Just open your mind and you will find the way it's always been.

Just open your heart, and that's a start.

JOEL S. FREEMAN

Dean of Occupational Education

Rowan Tech is here because it serves a function - a purpose - that reason for existence is an ability to serve you, the student. Your mastery of subject matter, your development of a skill is our purpose.

But there is, and must be, another purpose, Rowan Tech must help you develop the social and personal skills to live in a highly industrialized democratic society. It is hoped that Spectrum, the S.G.A., the various clubs, and "just socializing" with others will help you understand yourself and be able to work effectively with your fellow man.

Congratulations to those who are graduating. You are taking a part of Rowan Tech with you. Wear the "Stamp of Approval" well.

We, the faculty and staff, will always be interested in you.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "C. Merrill Hamilton". The signature is fluid and elegant, with the first letters of each word being capitalized and prominent.
